HAWAII'S LICENSING LAW DECLARED BEST ENACTED

the idea of prohibition, as advocated ample of an efficient control of the by Mr. Woolley and his followers, is liquor traffic. Immediately responsive a vote cast in support of the exist. to public sentiment.

EVIDENT MERITS OF THE EXISTING LAW
In addition to lending itself to the unrestricted control of the sale of liquor, the law is a ready vehicle for the absolute suppression of the saloon. This law, passed by the 1907 Legislature of Hawaii, possesses such self-evident merits that it is everywhere considered to be a remarkable example of the Commission's of the

PROHIBITIONIST INCONSISTENCIES

"This law is the best liquor licensing law that has ever been passed by any State or Territory of the Union."

—Statement of J. G. Woolley.

"And it further declares that the importation of intoxicating, spirituous, vinous and malt liquors into this Territory, except for medicinal or scientific purposes should be prohibited by Congress."

—Plank in the Prohibition Platform, Promulgated May 26th.

"What is proposed is not to lay the hand of the law upon people and prevent them taking liquor, but simply to give them protection against the temptation from open liquor traffic in their midst."

—J. G. Woolley at Kawaiahae Church May 20th.

"And if he (the tourist) really requires alcohol, the ship that brings him will not lack a full supply; and in the lavish hospitality that makes the islands famous he is absolutely safe from alcoholic drought."

—J. G. Woolley, February 11th, before U. S. Senate Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico.

County of Kauai to close all retail saloons.

The enactment of this law by the Legislature was considered a milestone in the progress toward efficient and equitable liquor legislation.

After thorough discussion by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Legislature of 1907, the present law was passed. The bill was drafted by representative men of the community and many of the suggestions made by C. G. Ballentyne, then of the Anti-Saloon League, were incorporated in the law. Those who stood sponsor for the bill in the Legislature included Senator W. O. Smith and Senator Hayselden. E. A. Mott-Smith, now Secretary of the Territory and acting Governor, also played an active part in drafting the statute.

The Board of License Commissioners for the County of Oahu consist of Clarence Cooke, chairman; Alfred Castle, Norman Watkins, Hugh Craig and Carlos Long.

COMMISSIONERS DECISION FINAL
Each Board of the counties possess equal power. The absolute discretionary control that is vested in the Commissioners is best shown by Section 4 of the existing law. This section provides as follows:

Section 4. Each Board, within its own county, shall have the sole power, authority and discretion to grant, refuse, suspend, revoke, regulate and control licenses to sell intoxicating liquors in such county, subject only to the limitations and directions in this act contained. The exercise of the power, authority and discretion by this act vested in the Board shall be final in each case, and shall not be reviewable by or appealable to any court or tribunal.

This section of the law was written to give the Board of License Commissioners unquestioned power for the enforcement of their will. They are empowered to revoke a license practically without cause if they consider it in the public welfare and they are answerable to no one but themselves. It is presumed the type of men who have been appointed by Governor Frear to be License Commissioners for the county of Oahu and the other counties as well as are able to judge the community needs as is Mr. Woolley.

LOCAL OPTION
FEATURE STRONG
Practically the only mandatory provision that appears in the law that is binding upon the Boards of License Commissioners is directed against the liquor traffic and in favor of the citizen protector against the issuance of a license. This covers the strong local option feature that is included in Section 24.

In this section it is provided that "the application shall be refused" in the event that a majority of the registered voters in a precinct shall oppose the issuance of a license.

The section is plain and clear guards against the placing of the sale of liquor in any portion of the community where the people voice their opposition as plainly provided by the law.

The section that gives the people this right and makes it obligatory upon the Board of License Commissioners to refuse a license when the protest is made, reads as follows:

Section 24. Upon the day of hearing, or any adjournment thereof, the Board shall consider said application and any protests or objection to the granting thereof, and hear the parties in interest and shall within ten days thereafter give its decision granting or refusing such application. Provided, that if a majority of the registered voters for such precinct shall have duly filed or caused to be filed their protests against the granting or renewal of the license applied for, or, if it shall be made to appear to the board by any protester that the necessary written consent of property holders has not been fairly obtained and filed as required and intended by this act, or if there appear any other disqualification under this act, the application shall be refused.

GROUND FOR LEGAL ACTION PROVIDED

The existing liquor law not only provides for quick and effective action against the liquor seller who breaks the regulations that may be prescribed by the Boards of License Commissioners, but it actually provides for legal action against the dispenser of liquor to a person who becomes intoxicated.

This section goes to the extent of specifying that a person who has furnished liquor "in whole or in part" upon which a person has become intoxicated can be proceeded against for damages.

The section further provides that if the judgment is not satisfied within thirty days the license shall be revoked by the Board.

The section in full is as follows: Section 23. A husband, wife, child, parent, guardian, employer, or other person, or the legal representative of such person who shall have been twice convicted of drunkenness or in consequence of the intoxication of such a person so convicted, may bring either a joint action against the person intoxicated, and the person or persons that furnished the liquor and thereby in whole or in part caused such intoxication, or a separate action against either or any of them.
